Why We Focus on Backward Classes

Rural and Sub-urban Focus

BICCI specifically targets rural and sub-urban areas where backward communities are concentrated. This ensures inclusive growth and development, reaching those often left behind by mainstream economic initiatives.

Building a Thriving Ecosystem

We go beyond supporting individual businesses. BICCI aims to create a complete ecosystem for backward class entrepreneurs. This includes providing access to credit, training, mentorship, networking opportunities, and market linkages.

Self-Reliant India

When backward classes thrive economically, India's overall self-reliance strengthens. A diverse and inclusive business landscape fosters innovation, creates jobs, and reduces dependence on external factors.

Untapped Potential

Backward communities often face barriers to resources, guidance, and opportunities. BICCI bridges this gap by unleashing the entrepreneurial spirit and talent within these communities.

Social Upliftment

Our mission is to foster economic growth within backward classes, promoting social mobility and creating a more equitable society. Financial empowerment leads to better education, healthcare, and overall well-being.
